Today's Game.

Rain or shine the College is to gather at the Gym. at 2:15 sharp to march on the field. Let every megaphone and pair of lungs in College be on the spot. Any man who isn't willing to sacrifice such a trifling matter as his voice in yelling for that team of ours wants to keep out of sight. We must yell as we never have before. There are not many of us, but it is not how many sounds, but how much noise.

This is the first time we have met Syracuse on the gridiron in many years. Last winter we defeated Syracuse at basket-ball and here is another chance. The Syracuse team will bring about three hundred rooters and it is one of the duties of every man to see that all are royally welcomed. With Bramley, Mann, Haggerson and Nellis back in the game, the team will line up stronger than before this season. Although outweighed twenty pounds a man, our team is believed to be speedier than the Salt City boys and with a dry field the contest will be a hot one. While comparative scores mean nothing, still our showing against Rochester does not look discouraging. The College can help play the game. Let's show some good old-time Hamilton spirit.

The line-up will probably be:

Hamilton.		Syracuse.
Schwartz.	Left tackle.	Harwood.
Nellis.	Center.	Russell.
Thompson.	Right guard.	Chapman.
Barrows.	Right tackle.	Tucker, Capt.
Sicard.	Right end.	Magoon.
Bramley, Capt.	Quarterback.	Powell.
Moore.	Right halfback.	Stimson.
Mann.	Fullback.	Stein.

ROCHESTER SMOTHERED.

HAMILTON 29, ROCHESTER 0.

On Culver Field, Rochester, Oct. 7, the 'Varsity clearly demonstrated its superiority over Rochester University in a hotly contested, though one-sided game. Rochester was clearly outclassed, but contested every foot of ground. According to a Rochester paper, "the Hamilton men played a fast and clever game."

LeMunyan, Moore, Bramley, Roosa and Sicard played exceedingly well. In fact the whole team played its best. Our back field was in play throughout the entire game and the ends and backs were the only men to carry the ball. Moore scored all of our touchdowns and "Bram." missed but one goal. The Rochester line and ends were weak, thus accounting for the excessive use of our backs.

Captain Sullivan of Rochester was a tower of strength to his team. Not only did he run his team well, but his work on the defense was superb. Steere played the best offensive game, despite the fact that his knee constantly troubled him and at last forced him to retire to the sidelines. Pryor also played a good defensive game.

Hamilton won the toss and chose to receive the kick at the west goal. Pryor kicked to Moore who made a return of thirty yards. On a series of cross bucks and end runs by Moore and Haggerson, the ball was forced over the line for the first touchdown after four minutes of play. Bramley kicked the goal. Swetman kicked to Goldstein on Rochester's 5-yard line. Our opponents made short gains through our line, but lost when they tried our ends. Thompson secured the ball on Pryor's fumble. On the first lineup there was no one to take the ball from Bramley so he ran with it. Because he failed to go out fifteen yards, the ball was brought back and we were penalized fifteen yards. Bramley then made a pretty run of thirty yards on the same play. Hamilton's backs began an onslaught on Rochester's line and ends and Moore broke loose for an eighteen yard run and a touchdown. Bramley kicked the goal. Soon after Swetman had kicked off, time was called with the ball in Rochester's possession on her 35-yard line.

In the second half Roosa relieved Haggerson and Hamilton kicked to Sullivan, who made a good return. The 'Varsity was penalized for offside which was soon followed by a penalty of fifteen yards from Rochester for holding in the line. Sullivan punted out of bounds and, on the first lineup, Sicard ran fifty yards for a touchdown. Owing to holding, the ball was brought back and we were penalized fifteen yards. Roosa and Moore hammered Rochester's line for consistent gains and the latter soon scored on a thirty yard run. No goal.

Swetman kicked to Steere who failed to gain. Hamilton held for downs. Our backs again went to work and Moore scored his fourth touchdown. "Bram." kicked a pretty goal. The next score came in much the same manner, our line plunges and end runs by Roosa and Moore, "Bill" scoring the final points, Bramley assisting with a goal. Rochester held the ball in her territory when time was called. The lineup:—

	Right end.
Sicard.		O'Connor.
Barrows.	Right tackle.
Thompson.	Right guard.	Pryor.
Nellis.	Center.	Slater.

Christian Association.

The regular Sunday afternoon meetings have been permanently changed to 5 o'clock instead of 4, on the ground that it was a more convenient hour for the College body because it did not break in upon the middle of the afternoon.

Mr. H. P. Beach, A.M., addressed a good attendance last Sunday afternoon.

The meeting tomorrow at 5 o'clock will be a student meeting and College sing. Short, spicy reports will be given by the Hamilton delegates to the Northfield Conference in July. This will be the first step in a continuous effort to get a record-breaking delegation at Northfield this year. Several have already agreed to go. The sight there obtained into the national and international work is a great vision of the duties and possibilities of Christian work in College. Come and help the meeting.

The general printers' strike makes the date of the "blue book" still an indeterminate quantity, but the management is probing and kicking in accordance with traditional practice and will do their best to hasten it.

The Rice Chess Foundation.

Prof. Isaac L. Rice of New York, multi-millionaire and president of the Holland Submarine Boat Co., who is known throughout the chess world as the inventor of the famous Rice Gambit which has changed the slow, tiresome English and German style of play back to the quick, brilliant game of the earlier French and Italian schools, and who has been very liberal towards chess interests generally, has turned his attention to intercollegiate chess and established a college tournament.

In order to make this interest permanent he has designated four colleges, of which Hamilton is one, which are each to give a gold and silver medal to their first and second best players. The winners are to participate in a quadrangular tournament at New York for a $350 trophy cup, the expenses of this meeting to be largely borne by Prof.
 Rice. He also presents to various colleges ten complete sets of chessmen, clocks, etc., of regulation pattern, provides for the delivery of a lecture on the educational value of chess study, and also advocates its addition to the curriculum. It is believed that Yale, Columbia, Princeton and Hamilton are the colleges chosen.

The Messrs. Watson, of Clinton, have been instrumental in securing this advantage for us and their interest in the chess affairs of the College is highly appreciated on the Hill.

Fall Meet Postponed.

A steady rain Thursday morning threatened to postpone the Sophomore-Freshman meet, but about one o'clock the weather cleared and preparations were made to run it off.

Notwithstanding that sky-juice was pattering again the meet was begun at 2:30. The ground was wet and slippery and fast time impossible. The first event called was the 100-yard dash.
 There was one '08 entry and three '09.
 Won by Roenke, '09; second, Roseboom, '08; third, C. B. Stone, '09; time 11 2-5 seconds. Roseboom showed the best sprinting form, but Roenke, though new at the game, showed promise if he will only work. The shot-put was next called and won by Cody, '08; second,
 Moore, '09; third, White, '08; distance
 30 feet 1 inch.

In the meantime the rain had increased and the officials decided to call the meet off at the finish of the 880.
 This was a walk-away for McCarthy, '08;
 second, Hopkins, '09; third, Judson, '08;
 time 2 minutes 35 seconds. Totals—
 Sophomores, 15; Freshmen, 12.

The remainder of the events will be run off next Wednesday. The betting remains, meanwhile, 5 to 3 on the Sophomores, with little Freshmen money in sight.

Incidentally it might be urged that there be a larger attendance then. This fall meet in a large degree serves to arouse interest in track work and every fellow should turn out.

U. F. A. 10, Hamilton Scrub 0.

Saturday afternoon our Scrub had its first game. For several days the work of the Scrub against the Varsity has been good and we expected to see the Scrub "do things" in a real game. But their playing was of the Job Lot order from start to finish. Utica started in with a rush and before the Scrub came to and sat up, the game was over.

Capt. Bloyer kicked off to U. F. A. at 3:15. They advanced the ball for several downs with good gains, then the Scrub got the ball on a fumble and punted. Utica steadily advanced the ball and sent Hayes over for a touchdown. Manning failed to kick an easy goal. Bloyer again kicked off to Haberer, who was downed in his tracks. Utica fumbled and the Scrub was penalized five yards. The Scrub got confused on signals, Getman was tackled back of the line and the Scrub was obliged to punt again. Utica ran the ball well back, but the Scrub held and Allen twice got through and nailed the runner in his tracks. Utica punted to Getman, who lost the ball and Utica fell on it. Time was called with the score 5-0.

In the second half Holley took Allen's place. Utica kicked to Beck, who came back 15 yards. The Scrub lost the ball, and Manning and Waldman made some end runs for short gains. Here the Scrub held, were penalized for five yards, but held again. Then Waldman was rushed over for a touchdown and Manning failed to kick the goal. Utica kicked to Holley, who brought it back ten yards. The rest of the game was steady seesawing back and forth with the advantage in favor of Utica, and the game ended 10-0 in Utica's favor.

Utica played a good game and played together, while the Scrub did not play at all collectively. For the Scrub, Capt.
 Bloyer, Allen, McLean and Lawrence played the best game, Bloyer's excellence being in no small measure due to his earlier training on the Job Lot basket-ball team, which was so successful in getting walloped last season.

The lineup:

U. F. A.—Manning, r. e.; Haberer, r. t.; Tapley, r. g.; Woolworth, c.; McDon-

 Lean, '08, r. h. b.; Kellogg, Spencer, l. h.

THE CROWD ON THE SIDELINES during the past week has been very small. Most of the College has nothing very urgent to do late in the afternoon and might just as well be out as not; especially is this true of the Freshmen. The team needs and deserves the support of the College, and the College needs drill in cheering and singing. It isn't enough to attend the games and give the management the admittance fee. A man must attend practice to be able to enjoy or help along a game. Coming out to practice is not a mere charity to the team, it is a duty of every college man. Everybody scurfs the man who can play football and won't, but how much worse is the man who won't attend practice. Anyone can afford the time. We waste half-a-dozen times as much every day. Why not have a hundred men out every afternoon all the rest of the season? That will make it worth while and will be fun for everybody, if one cares to put it on a hedonistic basis. Every fellow must bear his share of these responsibilities, they cannot be carried by the few. Let's stitch it up and make this football season a College affair so that we can take a just pride in it.

AT LAST THE PROBLEM of kicks at the Commons has been solved, or at least trouble has been organized. Three Seniors have been appointed by Headquarters as a board of control, and with them kicks by the students as well as by the steward are registered. This committee is a court of last resort for all concerned and in all matters coming under its jurisdiction its decision is final. This is the proper idea. Give undergraduates a really responsible position in this way and they will readily discriminate between plain knocking and a legitimate kick. The plan will doubtless improve the perspective of the committee rather than make any great change in the fare.

THE MAIL SERVICE seems to be provoking considerable criticism pro and con and we confess the ethics of the question are confusing. Beyond a doubt the carrier has much to say on his side of the matter, but the real merits would seem to base themselves on the terms of the carrier's contract. What they may be we don't know, but if the agreement is that the mail is to be on the Hill at 6:30 then it ought to be there if possible. The present carrier has certainly given good service, and that we appreciate. But to wait for mail that is a half-hour overdue, strains the patience and promotes ill temper. The fellows pay for the service and if they kick it must be because they think they're not getting their money's worth. It is inconvenient for the carrier to come up the Hill and go back again, but it must be that same inconvenience that he is paid to endure. We would be glad to sympathize with the carrier, but the merits of the question and of the contract he doubtless knows better than we do.

The Other Side of It.

To the Editor of Life:

In reply to criticisms of the slight change in mail schedule the carrier would like to state his position. Ordinarily in the past the mail has arrived on the Hill at approximately 6:30 p. m. This term it has been ten or fifteen minutes later, which has provoked some criticism. It is 6 o'clock, on the average, when the mail leaves the office. If the mail carrier goes directly up the Hill, it will be at least 6:30 when he arrives. When papers are filed and mail distributed, he must go down the Hill to get dinner and then back to his room on the Hill. In view of the fact that it is the dinner hour when he first leaves the office, we believe it is not asking overmuch consideration if he take 10 or 15 minutes for dinner on the way up the Hill. Certainly no one would think so who knew the physical strain of the trip and a seven o'clock dinner.

Perhaps the present service has taught the College body to be over-particular. We would remind them that we leave for the first mail at 6:45 and arrive at 8:30, with no opportunity for breakfasting, except such lunch as we may get in our room, and by this method have maintained a schedule that has given the morning mail regularly from an hour to four hours earlier than the former irregular schedules.

We believe that this explanation will be sufficient. If any further kicks are registered, they will be equivalent to a request for a change in carrier, and will be so interpreted by the present carrier.

Respectfully,

MAIL CARRIER.

Fall Meeting N. Y. S. I. A. U.

The annual fall meeting of the Union was held at Bagg's Hotel, Utica, on Saturday last. All the members of the organization were duly represented and the number of undergraduates present was unusually large. At about 2:30 the Board sat with President Leighton in the chair. Whitnall, Colgate; Bowen, Rochester; Wilson, Hobart, and Drummond, Hamilton, were appointed to act on the Athletic Committee. Professor Leighton, Hobart; Plass, Colgate; Bowen, Rochester, and Drummond, Hamilton, sat on the finance committee.

The finance committee reported that the treasurer's report was incomplete and recommended that the report when complete be sent to the president so that it might be audited by mail. The expenses of the various delegates to the meeting were ordered paid.

The athletic committee awarded the banners in baseball and track for the season of 1905 to Colgate. It was also recommended that the league managers meet at the call of the chairman of the athletic committee for the arrangement of league games for football before December 20th, and for baseball before November 1st. It was further recommended that the place of this consultation be at Syracuse and that the various colleges pay their own managers' expenses. This is a very important addition to the rules of procedure of the Union, and while it is perfectly just if the Union is to be considered first in the arrangements of schedules, still it is another matter as to its practical application. It is probable that upon the result of this consultation the fate of the Union will rest. It strikes at a vital point: i. e., the relative rating and mutual relations of the league members.

The Colgate and Hamilton representatives insisted that Rochester satisfactorily explain the delayed awarding of the medals of the last intercollegiate before November 1st. This report was duly accepted and the Board then recommended an amendment to the Constitution which should include basket-ball as a league sport. This amendment must be passed upon by the various colleges and will come up before decision at the March meeting.

A nominating committee composed of President Leighton, Hobart; Whitnall, Colgate; Bowen, Rochester; Foley, Hobart, and Drummond, Hamilton, submitted the following ticket of officers for the coming year. President—Prof. Leighton, Hobart; vice-president—Mr. Bailey, Rochester; secretary—Mr. Plass, Colgate; treasurer—Prof. Davenport, Hamilton. The ticket was declared elected.

The standing committees for the year are: finance—Prof. Whitnall, Colgate; Dr. Squires, Hamilton; Prof. Hoeing, Rochester; Prof. Leighton, Hobart. Athletic—Foley, Hobart; Cookingham, Hamilton; Dr. Huntington, Colgate; Macumber, Rochester. Judiciary—Dr. Squires, Hamilton.

The next semi-annual meeting of the Union will be held on the first Saturday in March at the office of Mr. Foley, in the Arcade building, Utica. Mr. Foley's invitation to meet at his office instead of in the dismal attics of the Baggs', was received thankfully and with a vote of thanks.

A New Football Song.

CHO.—Every little bit helps.
Give us just two more touchdowns,
Every little bit helps.
Pile them up in kicking mounds,
Every little bit helps.
Now and then a long end run
Just to make a little fun,
Then we will have them good and done,
Every little bit helps.

College Notes.

—Buy megaphones at King's.

—Strickland, '04, visited the Hill Sunday.

—The Freshmen introduced a yell Thursday.

—Hoffman, '05, spent Saturday and Sunday upon the Hill.

—"Prex" was a visitor at the College Commons Wednesday noon.

—Signor, '02, and Pratt, '04, made a short visit upon the Hill last Friday.

—The Eta Pi season is over and Madame Kelly has relapsed into her usual calm self.

—Even the rain could not deprive the fellows of the cuts granted to them for Thursday afternoon.

—"Uncle" and some of his boys have begun to practice for the Gym. show to be given in Ute next term.

—Sherrill Sherman, '04, was quietly married to Mrs. Katherine Roberts, in Utica on Monday evening.

—Sam Adams, '91, has an interesting series of articles in Collier's Weekly, on the patent medicine frauds.

—An address from "Square" is always interesting. His sermon last Sunday was no exception to the rule.

—Owing to the lack of building material, the work on the new South dormitory is not progressing very rapidly.

—Several Colgate men witnessed the scrub game against Utica Free Academy. Hardly a fair sample to judge by.

—Practice Wednesday was strenuous enough for anyone. A large squad was out, testifying to the mettle of the men.

—Syracuse evidently intends to win, if supporting the team will aid it. Don't allow them to out-cheer us on our own Campus.

—It is rumored that the Freshmen are going to petition "Prex" to shut off the water in the fountain. You can hardly blame them.

—That was a good idea of "Prexie's" to have the fellows sing some of the football songs after Chapel. We could stand some more.

—The Freshmen showed the proper spirit in getting out for the meet Thursday. A large number were out on the track ready for business.

—The Freshmen and Sophomores had a merry time Monday night. The gym. shows and duckings were thoroughly enjoyed by all who saw them.

—It was a rather difficult task to explain to some of the fellows why it was that a ticket "Good for all games on the Campus," would not admit them to the Saturday game.

—The new catalogues are out, that is outside of the College, but as a sufficient supply is not yet on hand, the students will wait further deliveries from the printer.

—Mr. Beach gave an interesting address at the Y. M. C. A. last Sunday upon "Reasons for the study of missions". After the meeting two classes were organized for this study.

—Syracuse has sent on an order to reserve for them 300 seats. This means, fellows, that if we would make any kind of a showing, we must all turn out and yell for all we are worth.

—The freshman class in Greek laughed singly and collectively the other day, when Prof. Fitch spoke of the Hellenic word for storekeeper as meaning literally "those who had been set up."

—One Freshman, five Sophomores and "Square" enacted a little comedy in front of Madame Kelly's last Saturday afternoon. The appearance of the last named prevented it from being a tragedy, as the Freshman, having refused to join Eta Pi, was making a game fight to keep from being dragged into the fountain.

—After all the knocks registered against the old stone pile in front of Carnegie, it is finally leaving us. Mail-box in Carnegie? Directory in Carnegie? Lights in the lower hall? Not yet.

—A loquacious Freshman approached the long Junior the other day, as he strode in across the Campus, gun under arm, with this remark: "What did you bag, Bagg." The party of the first part knows better now.

—"Prex" says that an unusually large percentage of the Freshman class are church members, and it is believed that it will be necessary to form two Bible classes on Sunday morning, as twenty are already enrolled.

—The Juniors have elected their class officers for the year: President, Stanley E. Gilbert, of Frankfort; vice-president, William F. Grossmeyer, of Utica; treasurer, Robert M. Scoon, of Geneva; secretary, Earl M. Clark, of Binghamton.

—The way of the transgressors is as hard for '09, as for any of its predecessors. Responding to that strange cry, "Heads out," recently, a Freshman received a half pail of water from a grinning Sophomore in the window above.

—All the boarders at the Commons who have complaints of any nature to make to the steward will do so through the committee appointed by Dr. Stryker for that purpose. The members of that committee are Messrs. Mann, Heacock and Bramley.

—By the way, Eta Pi having filched the Freshmen under its recent cognomen Eta Nu Pi, is now initiating into the mystic wonders of the second degree, which so far as Madame Kelley and the Freshmen is concerned seems to mean the same thing.

—Sicard, Warburton, Stryker, Masse, Purdy, French, Simmons, and Coupe, composing the "Paris Hill Double Quartette," gave an entertainment at said place, Thursday evening. No college fellows were there to hear them, which was lucky for all concerned.

—To have seen the columns of smoke pouring forth from doors and windows of the Y. M. C. A., one would have thought that the meeting had been converted into a smoke. But when, as Mr. Beach put it, the fire had been fired out the door, it resumed the nature of a religious meeting.

—The pile of lath which had been dumped back of the Chemical Lab. made a first-rate bonfire with which to welcome our victorious team. But the tolling of the old Chapel bell and a few good Hamilton yells must have done still more to warm their hearts.

—Purdy played "Tammany" as the recession on Monday morning; the Sophomores took up the tune with their "scurf" song; that night there was one of the liveliest rows the Campus has seen recently. And yet 'tis said "Music hath charms to sooth the savage breast."

—The Sophomores elected their officers for the year on Wednesday: President, Alexander H. Holley, of La-Croze, Wis.; vice-president, Floyd D. McLean, Binghamton; secretary, Salmon S. Judson, Vernon; treasurer, Winthrop H. Kellogg, Vernon Center.

—The Freshmen have at last decided upon a choice of class colors, and will not adopt the white and blue of 1905. Some one suggested black and blue after the recent rumpus, but golden brown and white received the general approval of the class, and have been officially selected.

—Evidently there was something about the yelling and singing last Monday which did not suit a certain Freshman. At any rate he held himself aloof from the rest of the College and refused to take any part. This is a poor spirit. The cooperation of every man is needed if we would make a success.

—Monday evening was given over to rowing between the two lower classes. Twelve "Slimers" and four "Rusties" took baths in the fountain, much against their will. "Keck" Holley was nabbed by the Freshmen and gym-showed in the Gym. While he was performing, three Freshmen got theirs in Carnegie. The Sophomores ended the evening's festivities with the "Royal Gaboon" yell. Is that organization to have a new lease of life?

—From the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle: "The University of Rochester team went down to defeat yesterday in a hotly contested though one-sided game. The locals were clearly out-classed, but they fought every inch of the game, and had Fowle been in with his booting the score would probably have been much lower. The Hamilton men played a fast and clever game. They used the double pass repeatedly and the Rochester players were fooled almost every time."

—Biology has taken so strong a hold on some of the upperclassmen that they have undertaken the home culture of squirrels. Two now wander through one of the dormitories, and "squirrelries" promise to become a fad. However, as purely humanitarian motives prompted the sheltering of the first recruit, it is believed that when they have passed the stage of adolescence and crack like a nut, they will be permitted to scamper off across the campus.

The Job Lots Musical Clubs.

"Hoddie" Edgerton's "Enormous and Spectacular Troope of Symphonic and Cacophonic Artists and Harmonic Gymnasts" descended upon the unoffending hamlet of Paris Hill last Thursday evening. They report a good feed, but apparently gave nothing in return. The Glee Club was thoroughly "neat" and Lloyd Paul displayed none of his paternal ancestor's fondness for the co-ed pitch. The members of the quartette say they were really good, but thus far no impartial judgment has reached the Hill. The instrumentalists were "all to the mustard" and received plenteous plaudits for their "music murdered." "Jimmie" Melrose intoned Poe's "Raven" in a realistic manner that wellnigh cleared the hall. "Mart" Driscoll gave his Celtic-Italian prize fight spiel to the edification of all, including himself. Edgerton recited a chunk out of James Whitcomb Riley in a fashion that entirely supported his introductory apology that he had memorized it on the way out. The worst of the trip was that everybody forgot Manager and Promoter "Hoddie" when the start back was made and his absence was unnoticed until home was reached. "Hoddie" weathered the night at Paris Hill. Hard luck! Purdy, Melrose, Edgerton, Warburton, Sicard, Stryker, French, Driscoll, '06, Masee, Trippe, '07, Adams, Simmons, Coupe, '08, Spencer, '09, made up the rout.
